

COMMUNITY WEATHERIZATION EVENT

save energy. save money.

Thursday, November 7, 2024

10 a.m.-1 p.m. 📍 Dietert Center (451 Guadalupe St #203)

Kerrville Public Utility Board (KPUB) and Alamo Area Council of Governments (AACOG) are teaming up to help you learn how to save energy & money— & possibly make improvements to your residence for FREE!

must income qualify & meet eligibility criteria*

AACOG Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP)

Apply for AACOG's WAP, which reduces energy bills & is 100% free for those that income qualify

Event questions?
We are happy to help!
Call KPUB at 830.257.3050

Bring these items with you:

- ✓ Recent utility bill
- ✓ Proof of income
- ✓ Identification for all household members
 - U. S Passport
 - OR
 - Birth Certificate AND Driver's License (or State Issued ID in lieu of DL)

Energy Saving Resources

Our KPUB team will be giving away free energy saving tips & materials

Drawings & Giveaways

We'll have complimentary refreshments, FREE blanket kits with weather stripping & a drawing for a Smart Nest Thermostat

while supplies last*